

SAIMI

---

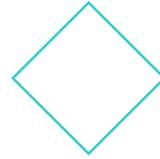

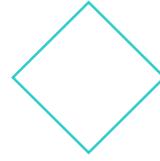

SOUTH AFRICAN INTERNATIONAL
MARITIME INSTITUTE

4th Engagement Colloquium
29 October 2018

HIGHLIGHTS

1 April to 31 August 2018

Governance

---

Advisory Board formally established

---

SAIMI performance review

---

Strategic Plan review workshop

---

Organisational structure: status and review

Operations

Quality management system and policies developed

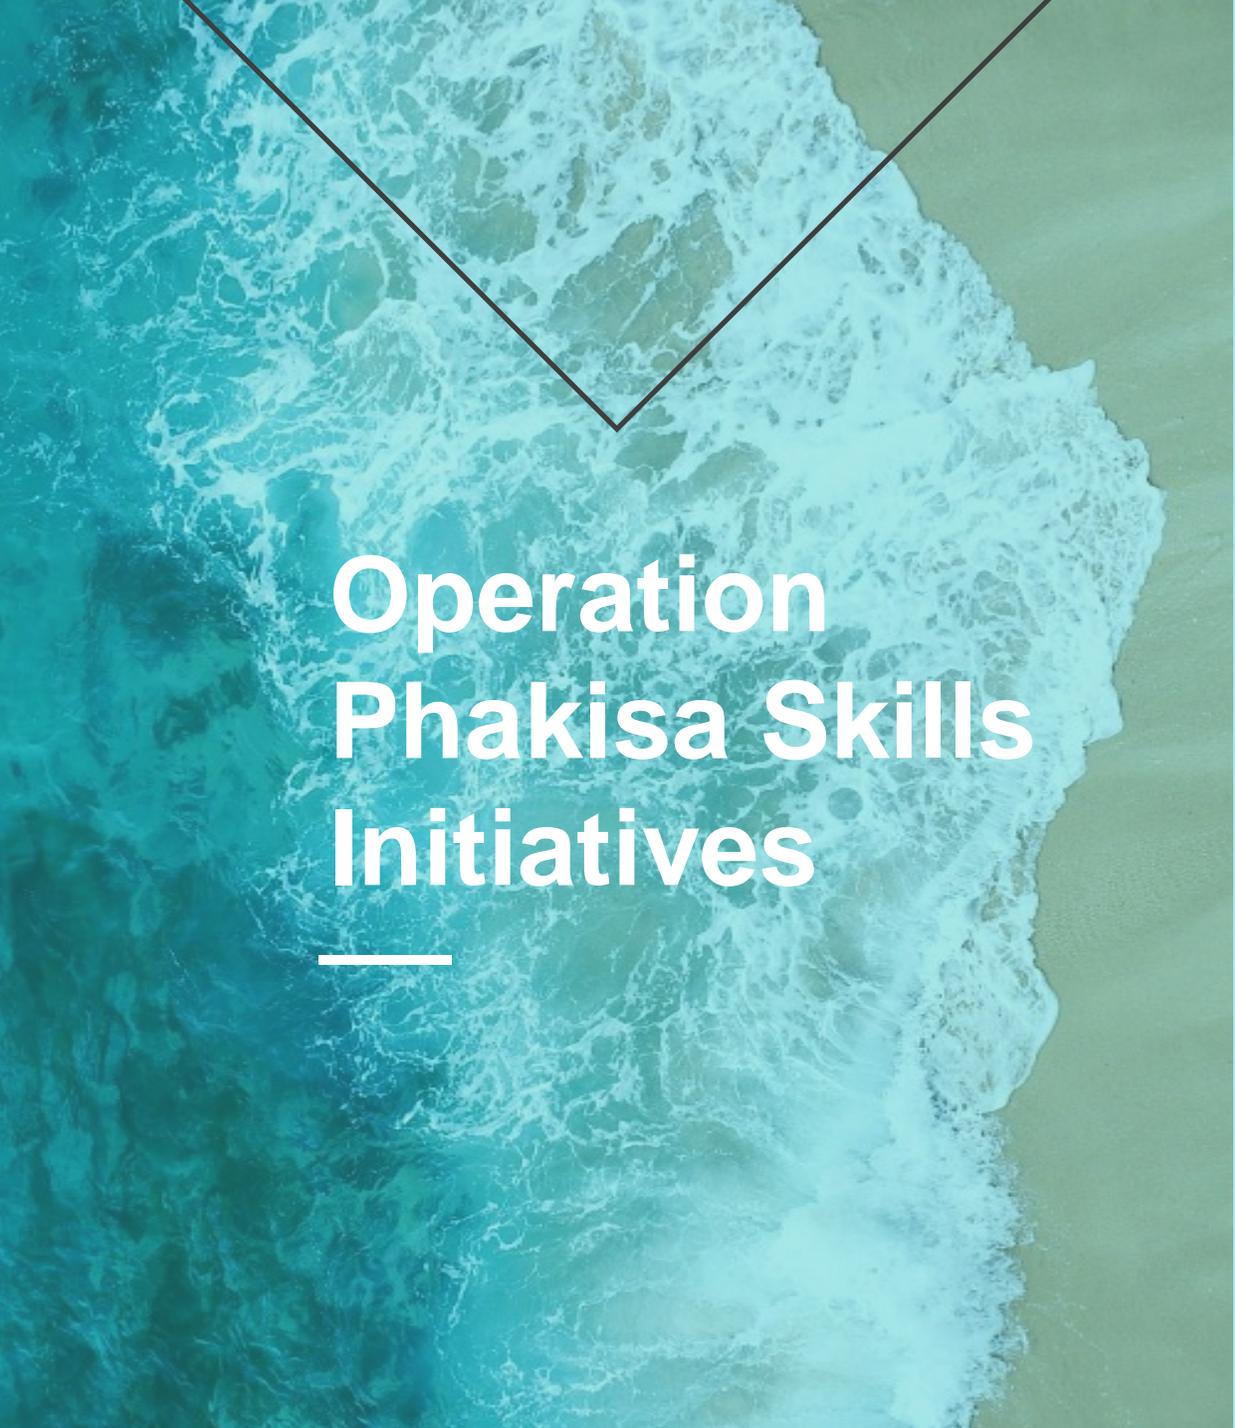

RFPs issued – SAIMI performance review, strategic plan review, PR & advertising agency, and various (skills audits, training, qualification development) for work of Operation Phakisa skills working groups

Financial

- 01. Current NSF support extended to June 2019
- 02. Additional R15m secured from NSF for new programmes
- 03. Future financial support – engagement with DHET & NSF
- 04. Five-year plan & budget – work in progress

Operation Phakisa Skills Initiatives

---

National Maritime Training Framework

Report on strategic skills map and labour market forecasting – completed

Conference to be organised for Q1 2019

Operation Phakisa Skills Initiatives

continued

---

OP Skills Working Groups

Aquaculture

Implementation of Skills Audit recommendations which focus on two priority areas:

- Qualification development at undergraduate level (SAIMI/DAFF workshop with universities in Oct 2018); and
- ABET interventions in partnership with AgriSETA.

Coastal & Marine Tourism

- Stakeholder workshop discussed skills needs for the sector in July 2018;
  - Confirmed the need for Skills Audit for the sector – RFP issued.
-

Operation Phakisa Skills Initiatives

continued

---

OP Skills Working Groups

Marine Manufacturing

- SAIMI pilot mentor training of artisans - project launched; 30 mentors being trained.
  - Workshop held May to review the development of local capacity for naval architecture qualifications:
    - SAIMI to determine with Universities who does which qualifications.
    - Establishment of a Research Chair in Naval Architecture is being explored with NRF.
  - SAIMI and TETA facilitating development of curriculum for Dock Master and Commercial Diving qualifications.
  - RFP issued for development of Competency Based Modular Training (CBMT) for TVETs as part of artisan development.
  - SAIMI exploring intervention to increase access to work placement for apprentices.
-

Operation Phakisa Skills Initiatives

continued

OP Skills Working Groups

Marine Transport

- National Cadet Programme.
- Support for maritime high schools in collaboration with TETA.
- Maritime Lecturer Development programme for TVETs & Universities – in early stages.
- University Lecturer Subvention Programme.

Marine Protection & Governance

- Skills audit & recommendations completed – implementation plan being developed.

Operation Phakisa Skills Initiatives

continued

OP Skills Working Groups

◆ Offshore Oil& Gas

- Skills roadmap developed (SAOGA); being implemented with focus on development of:
  - Petroleum Engineers & Technicians (CPUT), and
  - Artisans (50) at PetroSA Mossel Bay 2019.
- Research Chair in Petroleum Geo-Sciences & Engineering Applications Evaluation by NRF September 2018. (SAIMI status on adjudication panel is being determined).

◆ Small Harbours

- Preparatory Skills Requirements Workshop with DPW held 31 August:
- Small Harbour Value Chain Outlined, and
- SAIMI to appoint service provider to conduct skills needs assessment (RFP) across the Small Harbour Value Chain in preparation for the Lab process.

Operation Phakisa Skills Initiatives

continued

---

Related Operation Phakisa initiatives

- ◆ Maritime awareness campaign (stakeholder task team, youth interventions, events) aims to raise awareness of the maritime environment and opportunities & careers across the spectrum of the maritime economy.
  - ◆ Support for fishing industry – capacity & skills development for the squid industry via Small Employers' Association for the Squid Industry (SEASI). Further projects for the fishing sector in the pipeline.
-

Current projects & partnerships

---

- SAIMI leading the reconfiguration of NMB Maritime Cluster
- JL Dube Institute
- South African Sea Cadets (SASC)
- SATS General Botha Old Boys (GBOBA)
- Sail Africa Youth Development
- Royal Cape Yacht Club Sailing Academy (RCYC)
- South African Oil And Gas Alliance (SAOGA)
- Mentorship Skills training
- NMU – Reskilling of military veterans as Peace Officers
- SAMSA – SA Agulhas 1
- HP PRAISE
- TETA - Transport Learning material development
- DTI / NSF marine manufacturing pilot training project (boat building)
- TETA - TVET Ratings Training Pilot Project
- Small Business Support for TETA registered companies
- Nautical Institute
- Seagull Maritime
- Institute of Marine Engineering, Science & Technology (IMarEST)
- Learn@Sea
- Department of Environmental Affairs: Northern Cape Seafarer Youth Development and Maritime Awareness Project

Research & Innovation

---

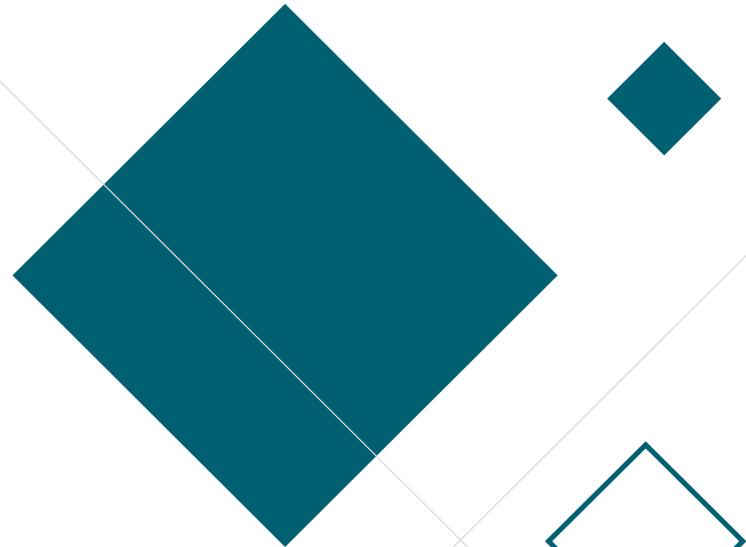

Formation of a working group to collaborate on research questions identified in Research Roadmap

Abalobi ICT4Fisheries – development of an app + capacity building to support small-scale fishers

Sindiswa Nhlumayo Merit Bursary for under- and postgrad studies launched at women's event on 6 September

Communication

R1.6-million value generated in media coverage from January to June

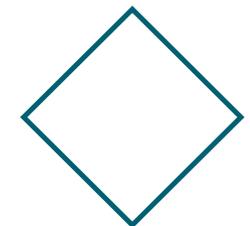

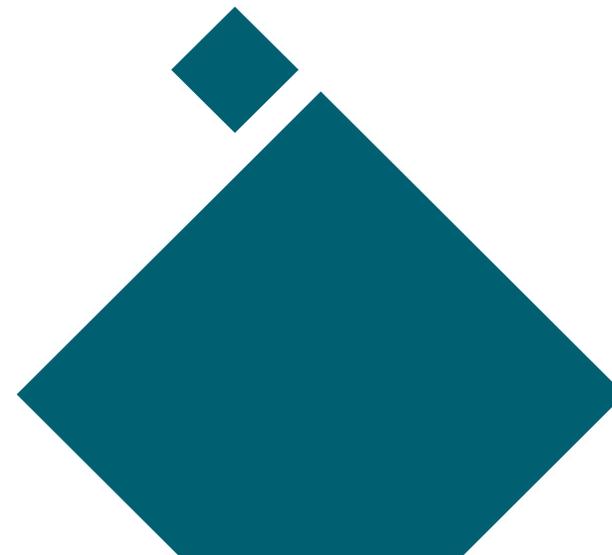

Updated communication & stakeholder engagement strategy in development

SAIMI editorials placed in Sunday Times, SA Business Journal, Post Matric magazine, Maritime Review Africa, Energy Decisions

E-newsletter goes out quarterly to ±3000 subscribers

—
Thank you

S A I M I

---

SOUTH AFRICAN INTERNATIONAL
MARITIME INSTITUTE